

My Kim I am not scared to die now you filled up my heart with so much love I am sad to leave you because no body can make me smile like you do and no body will ever love you like I do. I will come visit when you sleep and give you kisses. Dont forget to talk to me I am rite beside you I am the part of love that never goes away. you will always be my beautiful sunshine I love you up to the moon big as the sky bright as the stars dark as the night forever and ever

love your
Claire
